Tone of ten models offered by Mercury for 1955 is this custom two-door sedan. Characterized by completely new exterior body styling, the 1955 Mercury is longer and wider than previous models with design features created to emphasize the increased dimensions. Canted headlights, a full-scope windshield and a more massive rear quarter panel are distinguishing details enhancing the beauty of the new models. A choice of two engines -one developing 188 horsepower and the other 198 horsepower-is available. In addition to the Custom, Mercury offers models in two other series-the Monterey and the Montclair.
